

Suffix '-ed' List of Words, Phrases, and Sentences for Lesson Planning

Our word lists can help you plan for teaching the suffix '-ed'. Use them in your reading, spelling, and fluency-building lessons and activities. Remember that each interaction with words is an opportunity to build vocabulary. Consider pointing out words with multiple meanings to your students.

WORDS WITH THE SUFFIX '-ED' WITH UNCHANGING BASE WORDS

When the suffix '-ed' sounds like /d/

filled	grilled	spilled	smelled	swelled	spelled	dwelled	yelled	fizzed
buzzed	banged	called

When the suffix '-ed' sounds like /t/

dumped	crashed	smashed	stomped	stamped	jumped	passed	tossed	missed
stuffed	sniffed	packed	stacked	plucked	blocked	clicked	clucked	quacked cracked	winked	blinked	honked	thanked	dressed	pressed	crossed	ducked
yanked	camped	limped	masked	risked	crushed	flashed	flushed

When the suffix '-ed' sounds like /ed/ or /id/

landed	rusted	lifted	sifted	rented	ended	rested	sanded	hunted
punted	blended	twisted	dusted	melted	texted	acted	busted	blasted
tilted	handed

If you have already taught '-tch', you can use the words below.

patched	hatched	scratched	fetched	itched	botched	switched	stitched	matched latched

Suffix '-ed' List of Words, Phrases, and Sentences for Lesson Planning

If you have already taught r-controlled vowels, you can use the words below.

started	parked	burned	twirled	surfed	marched	chirped	farmed	harmed
swirled

If you have already taught vowel teams, you can use the words below.

floated	moaned	groaned	bowled	crawled	rained	braided	played	sprayed trained	coached	flowed	snowed	pouted	shouted	pointed	spoiled	broiled
howled	screamed

Phrases with the suffix '-ed'

filled the tub	grilled the shrimp	spilled the milk	smelled bad	leg swelled	dwelled in the hut
yelled at him	bug buzzed	called to him	passed the cash	blocked the path	cracked the cup thanked mom	pressed it on	winked and blinked	dumped the trash	crashed the van	duck quacked
chick clucked	yanked the string	landed at ten	rested on the mat	rented a truck	blended the drink
busted his lip	melted fast	lifted it up	punted the ball

If you have already taught '-tch', you can use the phrases below.

patched the pants	stitched and mended	itched and scratched	fetched the ball	switched the time	matched the socks
sketched on the pad	botched the job

Suffix '-ed' List of Words, Phrases, and Sentences for Lesson Planning

If you have already taught r-controlled vowels, you can use the phrases below.

started the car	marched in line	surfed at six	fire burned	farmed the land	birds chirped
parked the truck	twirled and spun

If you have already taught vowel teams, you can use the phrases below.

floated in the pool	flowed down the stream	trained the men	coached the team	howled at the pup	rained and snowed
sprayed the hose	braided her hair

Suffix '-ed' List of Words, Phrases, and Sentences for Lesson Planning

Sentences with the suffix '-ed'

We filled the pit with mud.	Dad grilled shrimp for lunch.
The milk spilled from the glass.	The socks smelled bad!
My leg swelled from the bug sting.	We filmed the class skit.
Jim spelled my name.	The kid banged on the drums.
The bug buzzed as it went by.	The cub dwelled in the den.
Ken yelled when he got wet.	The pop fizzed in the glass.
Peg dumped the trash in the can.	The truck crashed into the van.
Stan got his hand stamped.	I stomped on a big bug.
We jumped out of bed to see the gifts!	Jan passed the dish to Kit.
Brad tossed the ball to Pam.	I stuffed the boxes for mom.
I sniffed and had chills when I was sick.	The glass cracked when it fell from the shelf.
Meg winked and blinked in the sun.	Dad honked when the truck came to a stop.
We thanked Viv for the plant.	I got dressed and put on my hat.
I pressed the pin into the wall.	We crossed the path to get to the mall.
The duck quacked and the chick clucked.	I yanked the stick from Dan.
The quiz stumped the class.	The jet landed at six.
The tin was rusted.	Mom lifted the tot from the crib.
We sifted the sand into the bin.	I rented a truck from the shop.
The play ended at ten.	I felt rested when I got up from my nap.
Dad sanded the new bench.	I hunted in the boxes to find my lost dress.
Fred punted the ball to Will.	For snack I like to have a blended drink.
I twisted my leg when I ran up the hill.	Nick dusted the shelf by his bed.
My snack melted because it was so hot!	We texted dad from the mall.
In the skit I acted like a frog.	I busted my lip when I bumped into Jack.
The songs blasted from the van.

Suffix '-ed' List of Words, Phrases, and Sentences for Lesson Planning

If you have already taught '-tch', you can use the sentences below.

The coach switched the time of the game.	Pam sketched the lake from the dock.
I matched the socks and put them away.	Fran botched the job and had to do it again.
Barb scratched the bite on her leg and it bled.	We latched the gate so the dogs could not get out.

If you have already taught r-controlled vowels, you can use the sentences below.

We started the race at ten.	I parked my car by the gate.
All of my things were torched from the fire.	My skin was scorched from the sun.
The eggs burned in the pan.	I surfed with my dad on Sunday.
The girl twirled her pink skirt.	I curled the ribbon on the gift.
I turned the lock to get in the class.	I farmed the land with dad.
The fire sparked in the pit.	The dog darted up the hill.
I marked the chart with a check.

If you have already taught vowel teams, you can use the sentences below.

Dad coached my team for two years.	The lantern floated in the air.
I screamed when I banged my head on the pole.	I have always dreamed of getting a dog.
Jane cooked pot roast and carrots for dinner.	I looked for a black dress for the party.
I was seated at a desk at the front of the class.	I fooled mom when I told her that I failed the test.
My dog got groomed on Saturday.	We plowed the farm to get ready for spring.
It snowed a lot this winter.	I showed Ben how to get to Mike's house.
The milk was spoiled because Fran forgot to put it away.	I sprayed the dirty dog with the hose.
The timer beeped after one minute.	